
PC-12 PILOT TRAINING

PC-12 Legacy Pilot Training

Please take note that we can no longer offer Pilot Training for the PC-12/41, 45 and 47. However, we would be pleased to provide you the details of alternative training organizations.

PC-12/47E Next Generation (NG) Pilot Training

Course dates for the PC-12 NG Pilot Ground training are visible on the attached chart.

The duration for the Ground Theory Training is 7 days and for the flight training approximately 7 – 10 days depending on weather and student ability.

Language:

The standard course languages are English or German.

Number of participants:

Please understand that the minimum number of course participant is three (3) and the maximum is four (4) per course.

Application deadline:

Please ensure that the application to attend the courses is made 1 month prior to the course starting.

Course registration:

Please contact us if you would like to book a seat on one of the listed courses or if you would like to receive a specific offer for one of our training courses.

Please forward your request by e-mail, fax, or letter, containing the following details:

- Full name and address (in capital letters)
- Phone, Fax numbers and e-mail address
- Type of training course
- Preferred course date / alternate date

Our contact details are as follows:

Pilatus Training Department

Phone: +41 41 619 60 31

Fax: +41 41 619 63 00

E-mail: info-training@pilatus-aircraft.com

Training Dates 2020

Name	Duration Days	Start	End
PC-12 NGX Pilot Ground Training	7	09.12.2020	17.12.2020

Disclaimer:

We reserve the right to cancel a course if we do not have enough course participant registrations. Please note that the information given here in the document may include errors and /or mistakes, and that in any event does not form any part of a binding offer.