

Technical and Aircrew Ground Instructor for Avionic B2

Fly with us into the future and become part of the team at one of the most innovative aircraft manufacturers in the world.

ENGINEERING & TRAINING SYSTEME

TRAINING SYSTEMS

Your place of work: Stans, Schweiz

What you do:

- Preparing and teaching theoretical and practical instructions for aircraft maintenance personal, pilots (Ground theory) and specialists according EASA Part 147/66 and EASA Part FCL rules and regulations
- Preparing and teaching technical training for Pilatus internal personal
- Define and update customer specific course documentations including exams for our customers
- Definition, production, implementation and update of technical teaching material
- Side tasks related to training environment, such as e.g. update of hands on parts, software/hardware.

What you bring:

- Licensed Aircraft Avionic (B2) engineer
- At least 3 years of experience as aircraft avionic engineer or as technical instructor
- Pedagogical and didactical basic skills, as well as pleasure at teaching
- PPL or CPL permit will be an advantage
- German and English minimum Level B2
- Readiness for irregular travel globally for training courses

What we offer

- Financial participation in the company's success
- Flexible working hours
- Promotion of job-related trainings
- Good social benefits
- Referral fees for successful employee placement
- Discounted meals in our staff restaurant and employee discounts

Become part of the Pilatus family

- We want to address everyone with our job ad's and are committed to diversity in our company – we are looking forward receiving your online application

- For impressions: Check Instagram «pilatusaircraft»

Your contact: Patrick Hensler, Human Resources Manager, Phone: +41 41 619 63 01